Part X Public Charity Status

Part X is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity status is a more favorable tax status than private foundation status. If you are a private foundation, Part X is designed to further determine whether you are a private operating foundation. (See instructions.)

- 1a Are you a private foundation? If "Yes," go to line 1b. If "No," go to line 5 and proceed as instructed. If you are unsure, see the instructions.  Yes  No
- b As a private foundation, section 508(e) requires special provisions in your organizing document in addition to those that apply to all organizations described in section 501(c)(3). Check the box to confirm that your organizing document meets this requirement, whether by express provision or by reliance on operation of state law. Attach a statement that describes specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document or by operation of state law. See the instructions, including Appendix B, for information about the special provisions that need to be contained in your organizing document. Go to line 2.
- 2 Are you a private operating foundation? To be a private operating foundation you must engage directly in the active conduct of charitable, religious, educational, and similar activities, as opposed to indirectly carrying out these activities by providing grants to individuals or other organizations. If "Yes," go to line 3. If "No," go to the signature section of Part XI.  Yes  No
- 3 Have you existed for one or more years? If "Yes," attach financial information showing that you are a private operating foundation; go to the signature section of Part XI. If "No," continue to line 4.  Yes  No
- 4 Have you attached either (1) an affidavit or opinion of counsel, (including a written affidavit or opinion from a certified public accountant or accounting firm with expertise regarding this tax law matter), that sets forth facts concerning your operations and support to demonstrate that you are likely to satisfy the requirements to be classified as a private operating foundation; or (2) a statement describing your proposed operations as a private operating foundation?  Yes  No
- 5 If you answered "No" to line 1a, indicate the type of public charity status you are requesting by checking one of the choices below. You may check only one box.
The organization is not a private foundation because it is:
  - a 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i)—a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete and attach Schedule A.
  - b 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii)—a school. Complete and attach Schedule B.
  - c 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii)—a hospital, a cooperative hospital service organization, or a medical research organization operated in conjunction with a hospital. Complete and attach Schedule C.
  - d 509(a)(3)—an organization supporting either one or more organizations described in line 5a through c, f, g, or h or a publicly supported section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) organization. Complete and attach Schedule D.

- e 509(a)(4)—an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety.
- f 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iv)—an organization operated for the benefit of a college or university that is owned or operated by a governmental unit.
- g 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)—an organization that receives a substantial part of its financial support in the form of contributions from publicly supported organizations, from a governmental unit, or from the general public.
- h 509(a)(2)—an organization that normally receives not more than one-third of its financial support from gross investment income and receives more than one-third of its financial support from contributions, membership fees, and gross receipts from activities related to its exempt functions (subject to certain exceptions).
- i A publicly supported organization, but unsure if it is described in 5g or 5h. The organization would like the IRS to decide the correct status.

6 If you checked box g, h, or i in question 5 above, you must request either an advance or a definitive ruling by selecting one of the boxes below. Refer to the instructions to determine which type of ruling you are eligible to receive.

a Request for Advance Ruling: By checking this box and signing the consent, pursuant to section 6501(c)(4) of the Code you request an advance ruling and agree to extend the statute of limitations on the assessment of excise tax under section 4940 of the Code. The tax will apply only if you do not establish public support status at the end of the 5-year advance ruling period. The assessment period will be extended for the 5 advance ruling years to 8 years, 4 months, and 15 days beyond the end of the first year. You have the right to refuse or limit the extension to a mutually agreed-upon period of time or issue(s). Publication 1035, Extending the Tax Assessment Period, provides a more detailed explanation of your rights and the consequences of the choices you make. You may obtain Publication 1035 free of charge from the IRS web site at www.irs.gov or by calling toll-free 1-800-829-3676. Signing this consent will not deprive you of any appeal rights to which you would otherwise be entitled. If you decide not to extend the statute of limitations, you are not eligible for an advance ruling.

Form 1023 Application for Recognition of Exemption
Part IV, Narrative Description of Your Activities

The purposes of the Dennis & Victoria Ross Foundation (the "Foundation") are exclusively charitable, literary, educational and scientific within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Specifically, the Foundation shall engage in activities that support and promote research, writing and artistic productions that reflect the values of free inquiry, free expression, reasoned discourse and intellectual advancement, including:

- Promoting the arts and public awareness thereof by producing film, theater, music or other artistic projects not supported by the for-profit sector.
- Producing and publishing scholarly research and writing on important current or historical figures or topics
- sponsoring or producing lectures, conferences or debates on topics of current or historical importance
- providing tutoring or other educational outreach services to disadvantaged students

I. Funding and Establishment

The Foundation has not yet commenced operations nor received any contributions. Once it has been recognized as a tax-exempt private operating foundation, the Foundation expects to receive a contribution of $2,000,000 in cash or marketable securities, with additional contributions of $2,000,000 and $1,000,000 in the succeeding two years. These contributions and income from their investment will be used to fund the Foundation's activities.

The Foundation will establish and maintain a website in its name that will serve as a hub for many of the Foundation's activities. Thus, the Foundation's website will collect, archive and publish scholarly and artistic work either produced by the Foundation or otherwise representative of or consistent with the Foundation's values. The Foundation's website will also serve as an online forum for discussion, debate and the dissemination of information about current or historical figures or topics of importance. Although it is expected that funding for the Foundation's activities will come predominantly, if not entirely, from the sources identified above, the Foundation's website may also serve to collect contributions from others who wish to support the Foundation's activities.

II. Scholarly Projects

A principal purpose of the Foundation will be to undertake scholarly projects, including research and writing on topics or figures of historical or current importance. Possible projects would cover a broad range of scholarly work, but would focus on issues important to the promotion of free inquiry and non-ideological, non-partisan discourse and debate. Such projects would generally be undertaken in the Foundation's name and directly published by the Foundation.

III. Artistic Projects

The Foundation intends to enhance public awareness and appreciation of the arts by producing or publishing artistic work not supported by the for-profit sector. This would include literature, plays, music, film and other visual arts. The artistic projects would typically be funded by and produced or published in the name of the Foundation.

IV. Educational Outreach

The Foundation intends to provide tutorial services to disadvantaged students. Initially, such services would likely focus on college preparatory work, such as training for the common college application test requirements (SAT / ACT). The services would be provided on a no-fee basis to students from low to middle income families.

V. Location

The Foundation will be headquartered in New York City and much of its charitable activity will take place in New York, Baltimore or Boston. Thus, the Foundation expects to focus on artistic projects in or near those cities and to provide tutorial services to students living in or around those cities.

VI. Staff

Douglas Ross, a member of the Foundation's board of directors, will serve full-time as the Foundation's Executive Director, with operational leadership and responsibility for the Foundation's various activities. The Foundation will employ additional staff as necessary to provide tutorial services, to conduct scholarly research, and to review and produce scholarly or artistic work. The Foundation expects to draw tutorial staff from recent college graduates who have demonstrated test taking success, but may not currently have full-time employment. The same pool of talent may also provide staff for research, archival and other scholarly work important to the Foundation's activities.

Part X, Line 4

Pursuant to Treasury Regulation 53.4942(b)-3(b)(2), the affidavit of Dennis E Ross, President of the Dennis & Victoria Ross Foundation (the "Foundation"), set forth below, is offered to show facts on the basis of which a good faith determination has been made that the Foundation will satisfy the Income Test and the Endowment Test for classification as a private operating foundation.

Dennis E Ross, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

(1) My name is Dennis E Ross, President of the Foundation and an attorney with over 30 years of experience in the area of Federal income taxation. The Foundation was incorporated on June 17, 2014 and has not yet commenced operations. Accordingly, it is currently unable to meet the requirements set forth in Section 4942(j)(3) of the Code for being classified as a private operating foundation. The Foundation was created to engage in activities that promote public appreciation and awareness of the arts, scholarly research and writing and educational outreach, by producing or publishing artistic work not supported by the for-profit sector, undertaking and publishing scholarly research and writing on topics or figures of current or historical importance, and providing tutorial services to low and middle income students. The following paragraphs will demonstrate that, as operations commence and move forward, the Foundation will satisfy the various empirical tests necessary to its classification as a private operating foundation.

(2) Once it has been recognized as a tax-exempt private operating foundation, the Foundation expects to receive a contribution of $2 million, followed by contributions of $2 million and $1 million in the two succeeding years. These contributions and the income earned therefrom will be used to fund the Foundation's charitable activities.

(3) The annual operating and programmatic expenses incurred by the Foundation to accomplish its charitable purposes are expected to be around

$70,000 in the current year and around $227,500 and $275,000 in years two and three, respectively. See Part IX, Financial Data, Schedule A, Statement of Revenue and Expenses, line 24. As described in detail in response to Part IV of the Foundation's Form 1023, those expenses will include (1) the costs of staff to carry out the Foundation's artistic and scholarly projects, (2) production and publishing costs for such projects, including the maintenance of a website, and (3) staff and materials costs for the Foundation's tutorial assistance project. These direct expenses of the Foundation's charitable activities should continue at an annual rate of at least $275,000 to $300,000 after the first three years, and will exceed that level if additional contributions or income from the investment of the Foundation's contributions exceed expectations.

Based on the above financial projections, the Foundation's "qualifying distributions", within the meaning of Code Section 4942(g)(1), will meet the Income Test of Code Section 4942(j)(3)(A) and the Endowment Test of Code Section 4942(j)(3)(B)(ii) in each year of its operation because in each such year they will exceed the Foundation's "minimum investment return," within the meaning of Code Section 4942(e), i.e., 5% of the aggregate fair market value of the Foundation's assets. The Foundation's only assets for this purpose are expected to be the contributions it receives. (Those contributions will be invested, but the income therefrom should be absorbed by Foundation expenses, so that its assets in any period will not materially exceed contributions.)

The Foundation's minimum investment return for the current year should be approximately $50,000, 5% of $1,000,000 in assets. See Part IX, Financial Data, Schedule A, Statement of Revenue and Expense, Line 1, Col. (a). (The initial $2,000,000 contribution to the Foundation is expected on October 1, 2014, the date when the Foundation expects to commence operations, and the approximate midpoint of the Foundation's current year. For purposes of the Foundation's minimum investment return, those assets should be taken into account on a prorated basis to reflect that they were held by the Foundation for only half the Foundation's current year. See Treasury Regulation 53.4942(a)-2(c)(4)(vii)). The Foundation's minimum investment return in years two and three should be approximately $200,000 and $250,000, 5% of expected assets of $4,000,000 and $5,000,000, respectively. See Part IX, Financial Data, Schedule A, Statement of Revenue and Expense, Line 1, Cols. (b) and (c). Accordingly, the Foundation's expected expenses of $70,000, $227,500 and $275,000 in years one, two and three will exceed its minimum investment return of $50,000, $200,000 and $250,000, respectively, in each of those years.

(4) Based on the foregoing, the affiant respectfully submits that the Foundation will satisfy the Income Test and the Endowment Test of Code Section 4942(j)(3) in each year of its operation and will thus qualify as a private operating foundation.

Form 1023, Part V, 3a:

Compensation and Duties of Douglas E Ross, Foundation Executive Director:

Douglas Ross is an honors graduate of John Hopkins University (2012). He is an aspiring playwright and filmmaker, with experience writing, producing and directing for the stage. Douglas is active in both the Baltimore and New York City artistic communities. As the Foundation's Executive Director, Douglas will assume the bulk of operating responsibility for the Foundation's various activities, including oversight of the Foundation's website, identification and development of artistic and or research projects, and management of the Foundation's staff.

Douglas' Foundation duties should require an average of around 40 hours per week and 2,000 hours per year at an initial annual salary of $40,000. Douglas' compensation was approved by Foundation director William Weigel, who has no financial or family connection to Douglas or the other Foundation director. The amount of the compensation was determined after consultation with the extensive study of private foundation compensation practices jointly published in 2006 by the Urban Institute, the Foundation Center and Philanthropic Research, Inc. That study found that median executive compensation for smaller foundations (under $10 million in assets) was $50,000. The study was based on 2001 survey data, and almost certainly understates current compensation levels.

As both a Foundation director and the son of another Foundation director, Douglas is a "disqualified person" within the meaning of Code Section 4946(a). As a consequence, payment to him for his services as Foundation Executive Director is a potential act of self-dealing within the meaning of Code Section 4941(d). Because, however, Douglas' services as Executive Director are necessary to the carrying out of the Foundation's charitable purposes, and because the amount of the compensation is reasonable for the services provided, the exception to the self-dealing rules provided in Code Section 4941(d)(2)(E) should be applicable.
